A SPECIAL SUNDAY SUPPER!!

Our very own Father David will take on duties as head chef this week. The menu includes pork loin with tarragon cream sauce, baked rice au fromage y creme, sauteed green beans and garlic, and seasonal fruit pies. Joining Father will be a guest speaker from Virginia Catholic Conference. She is part of the public policy advocacy organization representing the Diocese of Richmond and Diocese of Arlington on matters before the Virginia General Assembly, United States Congress, and other governmental administrations. Please join us for what promises to be outstanding food and incredible food for thought!

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Alternative Spring Break Interest Meetings

Do you want to enter into a relationship with other Hokies and a community in need of your service? Please consider spending your spring break partnering with Newman Outreach Project in Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Mississippi, or New Jersey. To be considered for a trip you must attend at least one interest meeting and there is only one left!! Roanoke Service Day

Saturday, November 2nd, The Newman Community will head to Roanoke for a day of service. Each year, a group of 50+ individuals volunteer with local service organizations to come together with and to give back to another community with which we are closely connected.
