FEATURED ANNOUNCEMENT

RCIA / Catholic Inquiry

Tuesday 9/26, 8:30 PM: Are you a non-Catholic who's trying to figure out what being Catholic is all about? Might God be calling you to enter into the Church? Or, are you a baptized Catholic who's in need of the other sacraments? Then this is for you—come join other college men and women like yourself who are trying to figure it all out. The RCIA process involves weekly meetings that include prayer, teaching, and discussion. Father David and Laura Powell (our fantastic intern) lead and teach these sessions. Contact Father David or Laura (emails listed on back) to see if this is for you. Our next meeting will be at the Newman House on Tuesday from 8:30 to 9:45 PM. All are welcomed!

Room Blessings

It's a great Catholic tradition when moving into a new house or apartment to get your house/room blessed. Father David will be blessing dorm rooms and apartments in the coming weeks. It takes less than 10 minutes; and scheduling a day and time is as easy as signing up on the Google Sheet in our weekly email or contacting Fr. David at fatherdavid.vtccm@gmail.com or 703-888-9476.

Knights of Columbus

Attention all VT Catholic men: are you looking for a way to better serve the community for Christ? The Knights of Columbus is a brotherhood grounded on the principles of charity, unity, fraternity, and patriotism. As Knights, they give back to the community while walking together towards Christ, helping each other to grow in relationship with Him. They'll be hosting a few casual hangout events next week. For details, please contact Colin Cummins at colinc1@vt.edu or Michael Maynes at maynesmp@vt.edu.

WEEKLY HAPPENINGS *Weekly events and opportunitiesSunday Supper

Today, 6 PM

Come out to the Newman House for today's Sunday Supper! We'll be serving spaghetti and meat sauce, salad, and dessert. And don't miss Father David answering questions during supper.

Please review our weekly schedule for liturgies and devotional opportunities, listed in the right column. And if you'd like to help with the liturgy as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Altar Server, or Lector, please contact Joe LaClair at jlac13@vt.edu.
