FEATURED NEWS

Solemnity of St. Joseph

Have you been longing for a fun community event where you can meet other cool people like yourself? Well look no further! On Friday, March 19th from 6:30-8:30, we will be hosting a cookout/dad party to celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph. Something CRAZY about this particular day is that it is a Friday in Lent where you can EAT MEAT (cheering and elated screams are heard from a distance)! This is your opportunity to grow in fellowship with new and old friends in a socially distant environment. Please consider signing up here as a group or individual at the link below! You won't want to miss it! Don't hesitate to reach out to me (maggiem99@vt.edu) if you have any questions!

Stewardship

Stewardship is planned giving and does not leave giving to chance. It challenges us to plan. It asks us to prayerfully, and deliberately, appraise what we are doing with our time our talent and treasure.
